What Happened:

Two children, Polly and Digory, met in London.

Polly was playing and Digory was crying.

They went inside Digory's house and went up to the rafters above the attic. Because the houses were connected you could pass from Digory's house to Polly's house. They accidentally went into Digory's uncle's forbidden study and that is where they found the rings.

First uncle Andrew gave Polly a yellow ring. Poof! She was gone. Then uncle Andrew told Digory how the green rings worked and how the yellow rings worked. If you touch a yellow ring it takes you out of the world and the green ring takes you back.

Digory took a yellow ring and two green rings so that he could bring Polly back. Poof! He was gone. He appeared in a wooded land in the middle of a pool of water.

Surprisingly he was not wet! Then he found Polly and he marked the pool he came out of. They saw a lot of other pools so they put on their yellow rings and jumped in. They arrived in a new world called Charn.

In Charn they met a witch named Jadis and they all travelled to a new world called Narnia. Eventually the witch ran away. Digory and Polly were sent on an adventure by a lion named Aslan who ruled Narnia. They were sent to find a garden near a lake. In the garden there is a tree that has silver apples that Aslan needed to grow the tree of youth. Protection of Narnia. Digory and Polly brought an apple back to Aslan to grow the tree of youth they kept one for Digory's mother. They went back to London and cured Digory's mother. They then buried the rings.

THE END

In what ways was this book Interesting?

This book was interesting because I thought the rings were cool. The rings were so cool it almost made me jealous. I was impressed by the idea of traveling to other worlds. Out of the two worlds Narnia was my favorite because it was full of life. One of the most interesting parts happened in the beginning of Narnia. Digory was sent on a adventure to find a special apple that was needed to grow the tree of youth. If you eat an apple from this tree you feel young again and you feel so much better. I found it wierd that the animals could talk.

I liked the writer's style because I liked the way he described the worlds.
